GOOD NEWS FOR THE HEART

A study from the Harvard School of Public Health found that healthy individuals can enjoy as much as an egg a day as part of a well-balanced diet. Research* continues to show that foods like eggs have little or no effect on most people's blood cholesterol levels. For more heartening information on how eggs are a nutritious way to simplify your busy day, visit www.eggsite.com

BAD NEWS FOR THE HEART

Eggs are the single largest source of cholesterol in the American diet. One egg has as much cholesterol as a Harde's Thickburger.

The Harvard Physicians Health study found that doctors who consumed at least 1 egg a day had a shorter life span.

Eggs. So bad. Everytime.
